Notes in Reply to American Protest Claim Rights to Seize Trade Ships.

ENGLAND FOR ARBITRATION

Will Agree to No Back-Down in Policy of Stopping German Supplies, However.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Great Britain's reply to the latest American representations against interferences with neutral commerce, rejects entirely the contention that the orders in council are illegal and justifies the British course as wholly within international law.

"Unsustainable either in point of law or upon principles of international equity" is the British reply to the American protest against the blockade of neutral ports, with an invitation to submit to international arbitration any cases in which the United States is dissatisfied with action of British prize courts.

The British Reply is contained in two notes, one supplemental. With the notes was made public correspondence over the American steamer Necho, seized by the British while enroute from Rotterdam to the United States with goods of German origin.

Changed conditions of warfare, the British note contends, require a new application of the principles of international law. The advent of the submarine, the airship, alleged German atrocities in Belgium, are cited as justification for extreme measures. The blockade is justified on the contention that the universally recognized fundamental principle of a blockade is that a belligerent is entitled to cut off "by effective means the sea-borne commerce of his enemy."

The note reiterates that Great Britain will continue to apply the orders complained of, although not without to avoid embarrassing neutrals, and observes that American statistics show that any loss in trade without Germany and Austria has been more than overbalanced by the increase of other industrial activities due to the war.

BETHELBAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Had a Fine Meeting at Trenton This Week With Large Attendance.

Bethel Baptist Association met at Trenton Tuesday and concluded its session yesterday. The churches of Hopkinsville and Christian county were largely represented. Rev. H. E. Gabby was elected Moderator, Rev. J. F. Griffith Clerk and H. H. Abernathy Treasurer. The order of exercises was changed to give educational matters the first day and Mission report the second. The first general discussion was on the report on schools and colleges by W. S. Peterson. It was participated in by W. S. Peterson, H. L. Trimble, Chas. M. Meacham, Homer Fults, Rev. C. M. Thompson, Rev. F. D. Perkins and others. The presentation of the school report first was to give the representatives of the two colleges a better opportunity to work for new pupils. Both schools received several new pupils.

The usual bountiful dinners were served both days and the messengers were entertained in the homes of the people. The weather was fine, but a big tent had been provided to protect the table from possible showers. The next meeting will be held at Allensville.

Resolutions.

Wherein we, the members of South Union Baptist church and Sunday School in our sorrow over the loss of our brother, John M. Clardy, do resolve:

First—That in his death we have sustained the loss of one of our most faithful and dutiful members, and that his absence in the activities of the church and Sunday School is deeply felt.

Second—That we wish to tender our deepest sympathy and love to the family in their bereavement and sorrow, and assure them that his departure though being their loss, is his gain.

Third—That these resolutions be printed in our papers, and spread upon the pages of our minutes, also that a copy be sent to the family.

GREAT OVATION TO STANLEY

HEARD BY A VAST CROWD THAT FILLED THE TABERNACLE WITH 3,000 CAPACITY TO OVERFLOWING.

The Stanley rally yesterday was the greatest political demonstration seen in Hopkinsville for years. The Tabernacle, with its seating capacity of 3,000, was crowded to overflowing with a crowd of cheering people, 2,000 of them voters, who all seemed to be for Stanley. His speech was in the main the one published in the papers, but with a local coloring and many happy hits.

Hundreds of ladies were present and joined in the cheering which at times was loud and prolonged.

Mr. Stanley was met at the depot by a band and a big crowd. After the speaking he was given a "Squirl dinner" at Hotel Latham.

ESTIMATES SHOW THAT STANLEY LEADS BY 20,000

Comprehensive Forecast Made By Tom Cromwell Before Boston Got off Indicates a Sweeping Victory For Stanley Over McChesney.

Estimates from each of the 120 counties in the State on the Governor's race in the Democratic primary, made to Tom Cromwell, Kentucky political correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who conducted a political canvass of Kentucky, show a plurality of over 20,000 for A. O. Stanley over H. V. McChesney for the nomination. The totals are Stanley, 95,185; McChesney, 74,750; McDermott, 28,435; Bosworth, 21,455. The figures show that Stanley will get approximately 45 per cent. of the total vote to be cast and that he is fully 10 per cent. stronger than McChesney. He will, according to the representations made to the writer by knowing men in each of the counties, carry eighty-three counties, as against thirty-one for McChesney.

One county each is given to McDermott (Jefferson) and Bosworth (Caldwell). In Estill county Bosworth is given an even break with Stanley, and in Harrison, Floyd and Magoffin counties Stanley and McChesney are considered by the estimators to be about equal strength. In every congressional district, unless the figures are very much awry, Stanley will have a plurality over McChesney—in the First of 1,300; in the Second, 6,620; in the Third, 1,500; in the Fourth, 1,470; in the Fifth, 5,300; in the Sixth, 6,350; in the Seventh, 3,100; in the Eighth, 575; in the Ninth, 1,840; in the Tenth, 300, and in the Eleventh, 180. It does not appear to have been the expectation of the Stanley managers that the Tenth and Eleventh districts would give the Henderson man more votes than McChesney, yet the estimators are evidently of the opinion that he will lead in both.

BRIDE FOR A FERREL BOY

Isaac Locke Located at Frankfort a Bridegroom of Three Days.

Isaac N. Locke, one of the Ferrell's Boys for whom search has been made for two months, has been found. He was married Monday, August 2nd, at Chicago, to Miss Ruth Kennedy, a former Kentucky girl, a niece of Mr. A. Y. Ford, of Louisville, and Mrs. Urey Woodson, of Owensboro. He is now a prosperous young farmer near Frankfort, Ky. Mr. Locke is one of the younger boys, of the class of 1901. He is only 27 years old and at the time he attended school here his home was in this city. His father, a well-known traveling man, was in the city yesterday. An invitation has been sent to him and a strong effort will be made to get him to come

JOLLY SET OF OLD BOYS

Are Looking Forward To The Ferrell Reunion On August 20.

MEETING WAS HELD MONDAY.

Enthusiasm Is Shown By Local Boys, Many From The County.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Ferrell's Boys was held Monday morning at the H. B. M. A., presided over by President Jeff J. Garrett. All of the committees made reports and progress is being made towards a successful reunion. Only details are now to be looked after.

Two additional committees were appointed. The Transportation Committee is headed by R. M. Fairleigh, the other members to be announced later. This committee will furnish free transportation from the city to the lake, 4 miles from town, from 8 to 9 a. m. After 9 o'clock the tardy ones will have to secure their own conveyances. This is done to make all understand that they must be prompt. Those who come on trains later than 9 o'clock will miss part of the program, as the meeting at the lake will begin at 9:30. The Reception Committee will be headed by Lawson B. Flack, and will be in close touch with the Transportation Committee.

A list of those who have accepted the invitations sent out, will be made up this week.

The Barbecue Committee was instructed to prepare dinner for 300. It is a dinner that will be guaranteed to give entire satisfaction to Green Champlin, who is considered the hardest to please.

ASSISTANT WARDEN

Makes Plea For Abolishment of "Human Slaughter House," After Execution.

Ossining, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Charles H. Johnson, Harvard man, class of '02, who Friday morning killed Charles Becker and negro, making eight since January, and who expects to kill five in August and at least eighteen others in the next few months, declared he regards these killings as nothing short of murder.

It is not himself, but the state of New York, however, that he considers the murderer.

Thomas Mott Osborne, warden, refuses to take personal charge of the death penalty's infliction at Sing Sing. The young Harvard man says prison work is his chosen line.

"Friday morning," he said, "I talked with Charles Becker from 1:30 o'clock until 4:30 o'clock. An hour and a quarter later I killed him. What justification is there?"

"What good has been accomplished? None, that I can see. In April a year ago the four gunmen were executed. It was but a few days later that gunmen killed another New York citizen.

"The state says, 'Thou shalt not kill,' and then proceeds to do what it forbids the individual doing. It kills Becker—and, doing so, more than kills Becker's wife. The spirit of Christianity is disregarded.

"Over in the deathhouse there are twenty-three men cooped up, waiting in there cages to be killed. How that human slaughterhouse squares with twentieth century civilization, I cannot see."

RUSSIANS MAY SAVE WARSAW

Protracted Struggle Exhausting Ammunition of Germans Is Belief.

GALLIPOLI GAINS REPORTED

Allies Gain Crest of Ridge Near Dardanelles Trenches.

London, August 4—Although the Germans and Austrians along the great battlefront in Poland are declared by Berlin to be continuing their maneuvers, having in view the envelopment of Warsaw, the Governor General of the Polish capital was at his post as recently as Sunday last and military circles there were of the belief that if the Russian line held a week longer the city would never be evacuated.

In the fighting on the Gallipoli Peninsula the Australian and New Zealand troops attacked and captured a network of Turkish trenches, which give them the crest of a hill which materially improved the allied position. The Turks report that an allied attack near Ari Buens was put down with heavy casualties.

Bad weather is hindering the operations on the Austro-Italian fronts. Unofficial Italian advices are to the effect that the Italians continue to make progress near Rovereto, in the Arsia Valley and on the Carso plateau. In the Carso region it is asserted that an Austrian regiment was virtually wiped out in an attempt to retake captured positions from the Italians.

In France and Belgium there have been several infantry attacks, hand grenade fighting and sapping operations. Berlin asserts that in the Aronne, French trenches were captured and that in Champagne the borders of craters caused by mine explosions were occupied by the Germans. Paris asserts that the mine explosion did no damage to the French trenches.

A Good, Plain Talk.

It is a genuine pleasure to contribute anything that will influence the public to patronize the home merchant. He is the man that buys from you. He is the man that is responsible for what he sells. He is the man that will correct any defect and make it good.

He is the man that helps you to build good roads and in everything else that is looking to making life worth while.

The home merchant is always ready and willing to sell goods as cheap and I might say oftener much cheaper (quality considered) than can any mail order house in this country. He is entitled to your most worthy consideration and a little careful study will convince any man or woman that it is to their best interest always to buy at home.

The home merchant has the goods and will sell them always to meet any legitimate competition. Seeing your goods and knowing you are getting just what you pay for, is another thing to be considered. What does the man in St. Louis, Chicago or New York care about you except to get your money and possibly give you an inferior article and charge you more very often, than you could have bought it at home.

People all over this country are awaking to the fact that they have been gulled and oftentimes robbed, and are realizing that their home town is the place to spend their money. Stand by your home town, your home merchant and every article that is made in Hopkinsville, give that the preference always. Patronize home industry and home industry will patronize you. Buy at home and buy it today.

FARM ANIMALS

SUMMER DISEASE OF CATTLE

Infectious Sore Eyes Cause Many Animals to Go Blind—Spread Through Medium of Flies.

(By GEORGE H. GLOVER, Colorado Experiment Station.)

There is a disease among cattle, seen mostly in the summer, affecting the eyes and causing many of them to go blind. This is an infectious sore eyes, and by cattlemen on the range is spoken of as "pink eye" of cattle.

This disease is undoubtedly infectious and spreads from one animal to another, probably through the medium of flies. The disease runs its course in an animal in from one to two weeks and may result in total blindness, though usually the sight is not impaired. Only one eye may be affected.

The first symptoms is a profuse flow of tears. Soon the eye becomes very sensitive to light and is kept constantly closed. The eyeball becomes clouded and gives the appearance of a film over the eye.

Animals affected with this disease should be confined in a comfortable stall with the light excluded and given laxative, nourishing food.

A simple treatment consists of bathing the eyes with a strong solution of boric acid, or perhaps what will be still better, a few drops of the following mixture may be placed in the eyes with a dropper several times a day: Add half a grain of zinc sulphate and ten grams of boric acid to an ounce of distilled water.

The animal should be protected from the flies, as they greatly increase the irritation to the eyes and probably spread the infection to other animals.

SHROPSHIRE IS BEST SHEEP

New York Breeder Is Very Careful to See That Ewes and Lambs Get Plenty of Exercise.

I consider the Shropshire the best utility breed among sheep. As a producer of wool and mutton both of the best quality are secured. I became interested as early as 1880, having at that time some Shropshire grades, writes Arthur S. Davis of Orange county, New York, in Orange Judge Farmer. One of my ewes weighs 200 pounds, and in four years has sheared 60½ pounds wool. My yearling rams run from 170 to 200 pounds.

It is my rule to change the sire to prevent inbreeding once every two years. My method of breeding for show does not differ from that for any other purpose. I give them plenty to eat, like oats, clover hay and clover pasture, in season. I am very careful to see that the lambs and ewes take lots of exercise, and do not care for shelter except from winds and storms.

First Prize Shropshire.

My chief difficulty has been with stomach worms. I am now using tobacco dust with a salt, which gives good results. It is advisable not to keep them on old pastures too long at a time.

PROPER FENCING FOR SHEEP

Always Looms Up as Serious Problem to Those Interested in Keeping a Few of the Animals.

To those interested in getting a few sheep on the farm the fencing problem always looms up as a most serious difficulty. It does not require a high fence to hold sheep. Barbed wire, however, is most unsatisfactory fencing for sheep.

The best kind of fence is one made of woven wire from 30 to 42 inches in height, having from five to nine horizontal wires and from 16 to 20 stays or vertical wires to the rod.

Any woven fence coming inside these limits if put up to good posts from 14 to 16 feet apart will make a satisfactory fence for turning sheep. With a 30-inch woven wire it is always desirable to place at least one barbed wire on top.

When building a fence to turn sheep it might just as well be so constructed as to turn all classes of farm animals.

Where it is desired to fence against hogs it will be necessary to have a barbed wire next to the ground as well and a somewhat closer mesh and heavier wire must be used.

Soy Beans Per Acre.

About one and a half peck of soy bean seed will sow an acre when planting with a corn drill one seed in a hill 24 inches apart in the same row as the corn. This makes a splendid hog feed.

HON. JAMES D. BLACK

A PARTY PROBLEM WITH ONLY ONE SOLUTION

It is conceded that the Republican nominee for Governor will be Mr. Morrow, of Pulaski county, which county almost adjoins the county of Knox, the home of Judge James D. Black, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

Pulaski county is near the center of a section composed of thirty-odd counties, in Southern, Southeastern and Eastern Kentucky, in which the Republicans are greatly in the majority, and which includes the Eleventh Congressional District of Kentucky, the great Republican stronghold of the state.

Nevertheless there are thirty thousand Democratic voters in said counties, and in all that region Black is the only candidate seeking position on the Democratic ticket. Is this situation to be neglected by the Democracy?

Both political expediency and wisdom demand that that section of Kentucky have a representative on the Democratic ticket.

To win in November we must make no mistake in August. The Republicans will make every effort to get out an overwhelming vote in the Republican counties. Who, then, is to stay this avalanche of votes and counteract their influence if the Democrats have no local candidate about whom they can be rallied to victory?

The Democrats of Hickman county should seriously consider the problem and be ready with the only solution—a big vote for Judge Black in August.—Clinton Gazette.

Hon. Jas. D. Black Of Knox County, For Lieutenant-Governor, Will Add Strength To The Democratic Ticket In November.

(Editorial in Adair County News.)

The time has come when Democrats should begin to think about the November election, and the candidate who will add most strength to the ticket.

Judge James D. Black, of Knox county, Lieutenant-Governor, is the only candidate for a position on the Democratic ticket from the Eleventh Congressional District. He is a first class lawyer and a gentleman who takes much interest in public affairs, and is a successful business man.

Judge Black was for several years President of Union College, of Barberville, and is one of the recognized educational leaders of the State. He was appointed First Assistant by Attorney General James Garnett in January 1912, and served in this capacity until he was forced to resign on account of ill health.

He was the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Eleventh District in 1896, and made an active canvass of the district in that memorable campaign. In 1900 he became a candidate for Governor against J. C. W. Beckham, but withdrew before the convention. He was Grand Master of the Masons of Kentucky in 1888.

Judge Black has always been an open advocate of all moral and progressive measures. He is popular throughout the Eleventh District, an attractive speaker, and if he is nominated for Lieutenant-Governor he will do more to counteract the strength of the Republican nominee for Governor in this district than will any other man who could be selected.

The Democrats of Adair county know Judge Black and his qualifications for the office of Lieutenant-Governor. From the expressions which we have heard we believe that he will receive the unanimous vote of Adair county in the August primary.—Advertisement.

FARM POULTRY

BUILDING UP POULTRY FARM

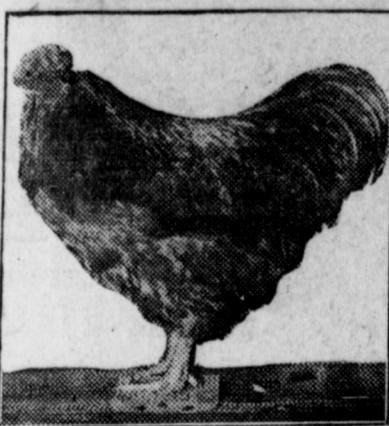

Necessary to Make Right Kind of Start and Work Must Be Faithfully Performed Every Day.

(By MICHAEL K. BOYER.) A poultry farm built upon a secure foundation is sure to be successful if it is afterward properly managed. It is not only necessary to make the right kind of a start, but the work must be regularly and faithfully performed day in and day out.

As a rule beginners start with great enthusiasm, and not a few build air castles, but to many of them the same ness of the work, the close application, the constant watching, soon become monotonous, and then there is a shirking of duty, neglect, carelessness, and the enterprise becomes a failure.

The point is to begin small—measure the size of the initial step with the amount of capital and experience at hand.

It is often the case that men with more or less available capital, practically put all their money in houses and stock. This is a mistake, and more so in the case of those who have no personal experience in the work.

In the parlance of today, "a man must be on to his job." He must know what to do and how best to do it. He must be aware that inexperience may cause leaks, and leaks will soon sink the enterprise.

It is a noteworthy fact that most successful poultry farms of today are those that have started from a small beginning and gradually expanded as business and experience warranted.

Men who would not go into the dry goods business for the reason that they knew nothing about it, will build houses and stock them and expect the hens to do the rest.

Hens, like cows, yield a profit according to the treatment given them. They will not stand neglect. They are hard workers when properly managed and rewarded, but they can be the most idle and indifferent producers when made to shift for themselves.

Our agricultural colleges have done much to teach the new aspirants now to tread in poultry paths, and men and women who endeavor to improve by these excellently arranged courses of instruction will have won half the battle—the other half naturally belongs to practical experience.

A man with $1,000 would better invest one-half of it in buildings, stock and fixtures and reserve the other half for feed and running expenses, than invest the entire amount in the equipment and have to go in debt for the feed.

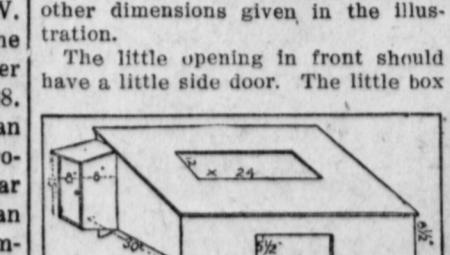

Eggs and poultry are staple crops and the demand is far greater than the supply. This country needs more poultry farms, and they will be successful when properly built and managed. But the beginning must be small and the growth gradual so that every part of the work is promptly noted and carefully and correctly performed.

Judge James D. Black, of Knox county, Lieutenant-Governor, will add strength to the Democratic ticket in November.

The time has come when Democrats should begin to think about the November election, and the candidate who will add most strength to the ticket.

The little opening in front should have a little side door. The little box on the corner of the brooder as shown is for the lamp or lantern to be placed in to heat the brooder. It should be lined with tin or asbestos. There is a glass opening in the top, 12 by 24.

Homemade Brooder.

This makes a fine brooder for spring, summer and fall, and gives excellent satisfaction. Its capacity is 220 chicks, and it can be made at a very small cost.

Judge James D. Black, of Knox county, Lieutenant-Governor, will add strength to the Democratic ticket in November.

It is estimated that the government's Grand Canyon game refuge in Arizona now contains about 10,000 deer.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so so much at so low a price.

The year 1914 has been the most extraordinary in the history of modern times. It has witnessed the outbreak of the great European war, a struggle so titanic that it makes all others look small.

You live in momentous times, and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World. Moreover, a year's subscription to it will take you far into our next Presidential campaign.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

Our Speech.

Our very vocabulary is degraded; the most far-reaching symbols of our language come seldom into use, or appear with diminished meaning. Follow, for instance, the course of the word "infinite" through the antics of contemporary literature. Our phraseology has become carnal; our vital terms are terms of physical life. Nowhere is the limitation of contemporary thought more apparent than in the instruments of speech. One must read again Wordsworth, Shelley, Carlyle, Ruskin, Arnold, Meredith to meet great words now little employed, words that make you realize the utmost reach of life; in so doing, one pauses in dismay, realizing how full contemporary speech is of lesser terms, how few employ the greater words that tell the inner life of the soul.—The Atlantic.

Peculiar Work on Streets.

A quaint old law for the punishment of petty offenders exists to this day in Middleburg, The Netherlands, and anything resembling it is not known to exist elsewhere. Owing to dampness weeds quickly spring up in the streets, between the paving stones, and here, under the eye of a none-too-severe guard, the offenders are put to work with a large trowel-shaped knife, clearing away the up-springing blades of green. Each is provided with a wooden stool, hence it may be imagined that they are not hard driven. Here men and women alike, who have been convicted, work in this manner.

The Handy Shoe Bag.

"Last year one member of the family was unable to be out of bed. I took a shoe bag that had ample pockets and pinned it neatly with safety pins to the side of her bed. In its pockets I put her books and various articles that she needed. Everything was within reach."—Woman's Home Companion.

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armour glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia?

Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions may be sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by one of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE!

Duruy's History of the World

Four splendid cloth volumes, full of portraits, sketches, maps, diagrams

Today is the climax of a hundred years of preparation. Read in this timely, authoritative, complete, AND THE ONLY CONDENSED classic world history—of which over 2,000,000 copies have been sold in France alone—just what has taken place in the inner councils of Europe during the past one hundred years. Read in these entrancing pages how Russia has for years craftily been trying to escape from her darkness—to get a year-round open port, with its economic freedom.

Read how Germany and Austria, fearful of the monster's latent strength, have been trying to checkmate her and how they have pinned all in this last, supreme stake.

The Lesson of the Past

THIS master of the pen shows you the glory that was Greece's and the grandeur that was Rome's. He takes you through the Middle Ages, the picturesque old days of feudalism and the crusades, through the Renaissance up to contemporaneous history, which Prof. Graweier completes in brilliant manner. In the story of the past you get the Review of Reviews for a year for one dollar. The views will give you a sane interpretation of the events that are taking place with such rapidity. It is not enough to read the daily news reports. Your ability to comprehend conditions, and to discuss them reasonably depends on a true interpretation of the meaning and the reason why of events. In this world you must bring order out of chaos—and the Review of Reviews will do it for you.

Also enter my name for the Review of Reviews for one year. If I keep the books, I will send in 10 days 25 cents for shipping charges. Otherwise, if you pay the Review of Reviews, I will send the books at your expense.

Send me, on approval, charges paid by you, Duruy's History of the World in four volumes, cloth bound, $1.00 per volume. If you pay shipping charges, the Review of Reviews will be sent to you.

STAND TOGETHER AND TOWN WILL PROSPER

Some of Our Most Progressive Citizens Express Their Views as Follows

Trade at Home.

In these days when there is so much being said about the conservation of our natural resources it would be well for us to consider at the same time the conservation of our local financial resources.

We are told by the statisticians that the State of Kentucky is annually sending outside of her borders & mail order house, the huge sum of about three million dollars. The bulk of this sum is spent for articles of merchandise which could just as well been bought of the home merchant, and the profits kept at home.

If the policy "trade at home" had been followed this year, there is no doubt, in my mind, that we would have in circulation in Christian county to-day not less than fifty thousand dollars which has been sent to the man outside the county and lost to circulation.

There are many reasons why every patriotic citizen should "trade at home" and few reasons why he shouldn't. The financial welfare of every institution in this county is either promoted or retarded by the prosperity or lack of prosperity of the merchants of the county. Their interests are identical with your interests, and when by your voluntary act you spend your money with a man a thousand miles away, you have cut off from your local merchant a source of income and profit which he had every right to expect.

You can count on your merchant to co-operate with you in every movement which looks to the up-building and betterment of the community, and you never overlook him with your petitions for aid. He generally does his part, financially and otherwise, for the promotion of every enterprise for the public good, and you are not giving him a square deal when you fail to give him your business.

Competition is too keen for the local merchant to be far out of line with his prices; and the national distribution of merchandise too perfect—the system of the manufacturer too complete, for the local merchant to have any legitimate reason for not handling the kind or quality of goods you want. If his price is right, and the quality of his goods right, then your home man ought to have your business. The South will never come into her own until we learn the lesson "TRADE AT HOME."

ED. L. WEATHERS,
Vice-President, First National Bank.

Some Sound Advice.

Being vitally interested in the welfare of the people of Hopkinsville and of Christian county, we cannot do otherwise than view with disfavor the constantly increasing tendency on the part of many people to send to distant cities and states for articles of merchandise that could as well be bought from our home merchants, often at lower prices than the mail order house offer.

The home merchant offers many advantages which the mail order man cannot possibly duplicate. When you buy from the home man you have the advantage of examination and comparison. You can use your personal judgment in the selection of the article—rather than try to imagine how it looks from the illustration in a mail order catalogue—and then too, you have back of your locally purchased article, the guarantee of your local dealer, upon whose honesty and fairness you can depend. Even after you have bought an article from a local man, if it proves unsatisfactory, you can take it back and he will cheerfully refund your money.

Here's another thing you ought to think about. The local merchants pay a city and county and state license to do business—and that license is used for schools, roads, streets and police and fire protection. In other words—the tax the business men of Hopkinsville pay is used for the education, protection and convenience of you and your family. Did you ever hear of the mail order man helping to do any of these things? Upon whom do you call when you are in financial need? Isn't it always your home merchant or your home banker. Did you ever think for a minute of asking Mr. Cash Down Mail order man to help you out of the rut?

Yet it is to the man who does business by mail in Chicago or Pittsburgh or New York that you send your cash favors in the way of business while the home man helps you bear your burdens and extends long term credit. Are you giving your home merchant a fair deal in this matter, Mr. Reader? Do you let a few cents difference in price influence you to send out of this county and state your dollars for goods you could buy at home? If you do—then you are not as patriotic as you ought to be—you haven't the welfare of this country and town as much at heart as you could have, and you are not a booster for your own county.

How Edward Can Draw.

Edward was showing Miss Brown how well he could draw a cow. As he drew, he glanced from time to time at a cow grazing in a nearby yard.

"This is her nose," he said, drawing a curved line.

"Here's her body," he explained, and after a look at his model he added another curved line.

"Now here's her tail," and he placed a curved line opposite the so-called nose.

As he held the finished drawing up for inspection, an embarrassed smile spread over his countenance.

"Perhaps we'd better call it a pump," he said.—Youth's Companion.

Nothing to Worry About.

The man who had been eating oysters off the half shell stopped long enough to eject a hard substance, which dropped to the floor and rolled under the counter.

"What's that?" asked the man on the next seat. "A pearl?"

And the other nonchalantly replied: "Nope; tooth!"—Judge.

1. He was once a teacher in the rural school.
2. He has served as County Superintendent.
3. He has been City Superintendent.
4. He was for six years at the head of rural education at the Western Kentucky Normal.
5. He has been assistant State Superintendent for three years.
6. He is well qualified for the position he seeks.
7. He helps to raise the per capita from $4.00 to $5.25 and to declare a seven months school.
8. He is a friend to the school trustees and is opposed to the abolition of that office as is advocated by some educators in Kentucky today.
9. He pledges himself to see that the teacher's salaries are paid promptly as they have been during Mr. Hamlett's administration.
10. He is a friend of the farmer and promotes the cause of agriculture through the school.
11. He is clean in habit and life.
12. He is a Western Kentucky man. So let us help the home boy. When you get your ballot look down the list until you come to the heading "State Superintendent." V. O. Gilbert is the first name and don't forget to vote for him for the nomination for this all important office, Christian county ought to him 2,500 votes.—Advertisement.

HOT WEATHER MEALS

COMBINATIONS THAT GO WELL IN THE SUMMER.

Hot Savory and a Cold Salad Are Always to Be Recommended—Some Suggestions That Are Worth Remembering.

A hot savory and a cold salad make a good combination for the summer luncheon, and the savory is a useful dish for the disposition of left-over scraps of meat, fish, etc.

The foundation of a savory is usually a triangle on a finger of buttered brown bread toast, or fried bread, pastry or biscuit. The filling may be varied indefinitely, and its arrangement depends upon available materials.

Here are a few suggestions for the use of materials common to all households:

Tomato Toast.—Half an ounce of butter, two ounces of grated cheese, one tablespoonful of tomato; paprika. Melt the butter and add the tomato (either canned or fresh stewed), then the grated cheese; sprinkle with paprika and heat on the stove. Cut bread into rounds or small squares, fry and pour over each slice the hot tomato mixture.

Ham Toast.—Mince a little left-over boiled ham very finely. Warm it in a pan with a piece of butter. Add a little pepper and paprika. When very hot pile on hot buttered toast. Any left-over scraps of fish or meat may be used up in a similar way, and make an excellent savory to serve with a green salad.

Sardine Savories.—Sardines, one hard-boiled egg, brown bread, parsley. Cut the brown bread into strips and butter them. Remove the skin and the bones from the sardines and lay one fish on each finger of the bread. Chop the white of the egg into fine pieces and rub the yolk through a strainer. Chop the parsley very fine and decorate each sardine with layers of the white, the yolk and the chopped parsley. Season with pepper and salt.

Oyster Savories.—These make a more substantial dish, and are delicious when served with a celery salad: Six oysters, six slices of bacon, fried bread, seasoning. Cut very thin strips of bacon; the bacon that can be purchased already shaved is best for the purpose. Season the oysters with pepper and salt, and wrap each in a slice of the bacon, pinning it together with a wooden splint (a toothpick). Place each oyster on a round of toast or of fried bread, and cook in the oven for about five minutes. Serve very hot, and sprinkle with pepper.

Cheese Savories.—Butter slices of bread and sprinkle over them a mixture of grated cheese and paprika. Set them in a pan and place the pan in the oven, leaving it there until the bread is colored and the cheese set. Serve very hot.

Uses of Pineapple Juice.
The juice left from canned pineapple is fine for use during the canning season to impart flavor to tasteless fruits, as the pear. A pint of juice added to the water in which pears are cooking gives it an excellent flavor. For canning the pineapple is often put up in grated form or after being run through a chopper. Although it may be served in various forms, the fruit is so excellent that the simplest form is as good as any. Sprinkle a little sugar over the slices about an hour before wanted and set in the refrigerator. If the fruit is quite ripe when served very little extra sugar is needed, but, like all other tropical fruits when sent North, it has to be gathered in green state and is seldom found quite ripened from the field.

No fruit lends itself with greater readiness than the pineapple to coaxing art of the canneries and the preserving factories.

Banana Cake.
Make any one-egg cake, or better still make a sponge cake and bake in round tins, two layers; slice banana on cake and cover with whipped cream; simply lay another layer of cake on first and cover again with bananas and cream.

Whipped Cream.—Take one cupful sweet cream, add the white of an egg to give it body, small pinch of salt and whip all together until thick; sweeten to taste and flavor with vanilla.—Boston Globe.

Rhubarb Custard.
Stew about one and a half pounds rhubarb and one cupful sugar. Make a soft custard of one pint milk, two eggs, half cup sugar and one tablespoonful cornstarch in a double boiler. Let both cool, then pour custard over the rhubarb. Rhubarb is much better stewed in double boiler, too, using no water.

Sour Cream Dressing.
One-half pint sour cream, two table-spoonfuls lemon juice, one tablespoonful sugar, one teaspoonful salt, one-quarter teaspoonful pepper; one tea-spoonful mustard. Beat the cream until it is light and thick, add the other ingredients. Sweet cream may be substituted if desired.

To Clean Brushes.
Clean all brushes carefully by dipping the bristles in warm water to which has been added a few drops of ammonia. Remove any bits of hair or dust from them, finish off by dabbing bristles in clear cold water, and hang on the brusher in the sun.

Fiscal Court Adopts Resolutions Pledging Christian County.

Whereas, there is now a movement to construct a macadam highway from the LIne to the Gulf, and particularly a highway from Danville, Illinois, to Nashville, Tenn., known as the "Dixie Bee Line," which connects with the Dixie Highway at said points; and

Whereas, said highway, on a straight line from Evansville to Nashville would pass through Christian county, Kentucky, and through the city of Hopkinsville, and the citizens and taxpayers of Christian county having shown a deep interest in the location of said highway
through this county:

We, the fiscal agents of Christian county, heartily endorse and approve this movement, and we hereby pledge ourselves and successors in office to construct Christian country's portion of said highway over any line through Christian county which the Dixie Bee Line Commissioners may select and designate;
and we hereby pledge Christian county to construct its portion of said highway and to have same completed and ready for travel not later than January 1, 1917.

On a call of ayes and nays, the above resolution was passed unanimously by the Fiscal Court of Christian county on August 3rd.

Your Home Merchants.

True to its life long policy, the Kentuckian again appeals to its readers today to patronize the home merchants, many of whom will be found represented in its advertising columns.

There are more reasons than one why you should trade with your home merchant. In the first place, you know what you are getting when you get it. If it is a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes or an agricultural implement, you can make the necessary examination and satisfy yourself of the worth of the article before you take it out of the place. If it is not satisfactory, you can have recourse on the dealer. If you are hard run, it is your home merchant you look to for credit. When you bring your products to the city you expect to sell them to the home trade.

The home merchant employs his clerks here, and these are compelled to buy farm products. He pays taxes on his goods and his other property, and thus helps to lift the burden of taxation from your shoulders. He works in connection with you for better schools, better roads and better government.

If you send off your list to a mail order house, you get what the house in Chicago or elsewhere chooses to send you. The apparent attractive decrease in price is often more apparent than real. You don't know what is in the goods they send you.
You only know that you have sent the money in advance, and you are compelled to take what comes. If you raise a kick, the matter is compelled to go through the red tape regulation of a concern that cares nothing more for you since it has your money.

An investigation will often show that you can purchase the same goods for the same money right here in the home market. If not, your home merchant will be able to get it for you, and if assured of your trade thereafter, he will have it on hand for you when you are again in need.

It is impossible to find out just how much money goes out to the so-called mail order houses. The Commerce Commission found out that more than two million dollars went out of Kentucky last year to these houses where payments were made by postal and express money orders. Where checks or cash were sent, the commission could not get a line on it. It is reasonable to estimate that more than fifty thousand dollars are sent out of this county every year to these foreign houses. This never comes back, but goes to enrich the dividends of these foreign concerns.

It is different with the money you spend with your home merchant.
The clothier pays the grocer, the grocer pays the baker, the baker pays the coal man, and so the money gets into circulation, and finally gets back into your own bank account.

W. C. T. U. STRONG FOR McCHESNEY

We rejoice in the progress being made toward State-wide Prohibition in Kentucky. The Hon. H. V. Mc-Chesney, candidate for Governor and other candidates favoring State-wide Prohibition, will deserve, and are receiving the hearty endorsement of the United Temperance force of the State. The Fifth (nine local unions) and Seventh District (Division A) of Kentucky W. C. T. U. (sixteen local unions) have passed strong resolutions endorsing Mr. McChesney, and reports from Unions all over the State indicate that they are almost unanimously for him. We have heard of no Union in the State endorsing any other candidate for Governor.

At the Second District Convention
(twenty-three local Unions) held recently in Owensboro the roll call showed that every Union had instructed their delegates to declare themselves for Mr. McChesney for Governor. Among the other resolutions the following were unanimously adopted:

FIRST—That we declare against the liquor traffic, and do hereby affirm our stand for total abstinence from all alcoholic beverages for the individual, and for State and National Prohibition.

SECOND—That we heartily declare ourselves for the endorsement of the Hon. H. V. McChesney, candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket. We furthermore urge people of like mind to co-operate and nominate to State offices such candidates as favor submitting

TO THE VOTERS OF HOPKINSVILLE

I am a candidate for Commissioner for the City of Hopkinsville, subject to the action of the voters of said city, in the primary election, to be held in October, 1915, as provided by Section 3480B, Sub-section 6, of the Kentucky Statutes.

In making my announcement, I desire to call the voters' attention to the following principles for which I stand:

FIRST—I believe in efficiency in governmental affairs; that our city government should be conducted on the same high plane as the best managed business concerns of this or any other city. In order to secure efficiency in our governmental affairs every branch of the city government should be systematized, and great care should be exercised in selecting efficient employees.

SECOND—I believe the taxpayers of the city are entitled to know at any and at all times the financial condition of our city; from what sources its revenues are derived, and in what manner they are disbursed.
Therefore, I am in favor of giving publicity to the management of the city government by publishing quarterly condensed statements, in the various newspapers of the city, showing the condition of the city's finances.

THIRD—I believe in the equal distribution of the city's public improvements, and that no favoritism should be shown to any individual or class.

FOURTH—Political pull and chicane are inimical to good government, I therefore believe in selecting the best men obtainable for the various positions to be filled by the commissioners without regard to politics.

Past experience has taught us that too much politics in city government is detrimental to our city's welfare.

The Commissioners to be selected at the November election will be confronted at the very outset with changing our city government from the old form to the new, and many grave difficulties will arise in the adjustment of the city's affairs. For this reason, the people of Hopkinsville should exercise their best judgment in selecting men for commissioners who have had experience in business and municipal affairs. How well the City's money will be spent,
and how much economy will be practiced depends upon the kind of commissioners you select.

I shall make no promise of position to any man, as I prefer to be free to choose employees upon their merit alone, if I am nominated and elected, as I believe I will be. No religious or political affiliation shall influence my action against any man or set of men in the performance of my duty. I shall know no difference between an individual and a corporation in the discharge of my official duty.

I served the city as an officer for a period of eight years and I am willing to stand upon the record I made during my administration. I feel that I am well qualified for the office to which I aspire, and your votes and influence will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,
J. SOL FRITZ.

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

VI.—F. C. Howe

On The Advantages of Free Ports

Mr. F. C. Howe, Federal Commissioner of Immigration, who is one of the best American authorities on marine commerce, in discussing the relation of free ports to the development of sea trade said in part:

"Ships will go hundreds of miles out of their way to avoid ports surrounded by a tariff wall. The only way, therefore, for a country with a tariff to compete in the shipping world with a free trade country is to establish free ports at strategical points along its coast line. Germany has done so, and in a comparatively short period has built up a carrying trade which before the war was seriously threatening England's supremacy.

Hamburg, one of the three German free ports, now ranks as the second greatest seaport in the world, its total foreign commerce in 1913 being only $6,000,000 under that of New York.

The free port would offer great opportunity for financial operations, now made possible by the recent currency act. It would stimulate international banking, and would tend to shift the financial center of the world to this country. And America, by the logic of events, has become the natural center for the world's financing, just as London became that center several centuries ago, when it shifted from the cities of the Netherlands. But the financial center will only move to this country when it becomes a clearing house of goods as well as of money. For credit the world over is created by currently created wealth in transit or change so that even our financial expansion is dependent upon the opening up of American ports to the clearance of the wealth of the world. A port should not operate to yield a return on the investment, but to develop the prosperity of the country." In recapitulating the advantages, Mr. Howe brings out the importance of the free port in developing our shipping, and linking us with South America, Asia and Africa, and then concludes:

"The most important gain is the direct gain to America. It will cheapen commodities by bringing great quantities of goods to our doors for importation or export, as trade needs demand. It will stimulate the growth of exporting houses, which can hold goods for an indefinite period without the payment of tariff dues (often equal to the cost of the article itself) for disposal to meet the trade demands of the whole world. It will upbuild international credit, and shift to America an increasing and ultimately a predominant share in international exchange.

Finally, America is the natural country to be the center of the world.

Its seacoasts face every other continent;

it is the greatest of all reservoirs

of raw materials and foodstuffs.

In iron and steel and standardized production it is in a position to compete with the world. But international trade

(and this is always overlooked) must be reciprocal. It cannot be one-sided and credit balances cannot for any prolonged period be paid in gold. They can only be paid by exchange of wealth."

Its personal integrity, his party loyalty are not excelled by any other candidate running in the August Primary.

A stronger candidate or more proficient officer could not be selected.
The Fourth District has no Democrat now holding an elective State office at Frankfort, and unless Mr.
Likens is nominated it will not be represented on the State ticket.
VOTE FOR HIM! not alone because he is the only candidate from the Fourth District, but because he is the best man to nominate.—Advertisement.

COMES TO HER OWN FUNERAL

When Mrs. Eva Cunningham
reached the home of her father, Walter J. Sanderson, with whom she lives, at New Brunswick, she was surprised to see flowers and a gathering of weeping friends.

"Why, we thought that you were dead!" said the friends when they saw her. "We saw a notice that you had died in Spring Lake."

"Well, do I look like a dead one?"
retorted the supposed corpse.

The announcement appeared in a local paper and also an Asbury Park paper, and was printed in good faith.
